Example Speech 3 – Favourite season

Hello, my name is _____. Today, I'd like to talk about my favourite season. My favourite season is spring. There are many reasons why I love this time: cherry blossoms, sakura-flavoured food, festivals, the weather, and strawberries!

First, I'd like to talk about cherry blossoms. Cherry blossoms bloom across Japan at different time in spring. Starting from as early as mid-January in Okinawa to early May in Hokkaido, cherry blossoms are many different colours from white to bright pink. They are very beautiful. I also love seeing them at night. My favourite place is Chidorigafuchi. I love the little boats and the night-time illuminations.

I also love the sakura-flavoured food. My favourite is sakura flavoured ice cream! There are many types of sakura food. Sakura-mochi, domyouji and manju are traditional examples of sakura sweets. Sakura macaroons are also popular. Many coffee shops also sell sakura lattes or sakura teas.

Another reason I love spring is the weather. It is much warmer than winter, and it is usually sunny. It isn't too hot or too cold. It's also not humid, which I hate in summer. It is a good temperature to play sports and go to the park with my friends.

Finally, the last reason I love spring is strawberries! I love strawberries! Do you? Many strawberries are ripe for picking in spring. I love going strawberry picking with my friends. It's great fun eating the strawberries together after! My favourite dessert is strawberry cake.

These are the main reasons spring is my favourite season. I really like the colours, smells, and foods at this time. Although spring gives me bad hayfever, the good things about spring definitely beat the bad, so that's why spring is my favourite season.

Thank you for listening.
