

HL B1 Shopping post study

Answer sheet

A. Read the answers below and make the appropriate questions.

1. Which is more popular, the chocolate ice cream or the cherry flavoured ice cream?

The chocolate ice cream is more popular than the cherry flavoured ice cream.

2. Which is of these scents do you think is milder, the lavender or rose?

I think the lavender is milder than the rose.

3. Are the Tim Tams cheaper than Whittaker's Coconut Block?

Yes, Tim Tams are cheaper.

4. Which do you like better, the green or the orange one?

I like the green better than the orange one.

B. Correct the comparative or superlative error in the sentences below.

1. These cheese scones are more delicious than the plain scones.
2. This brand is newer than that one.
3. The biscuits over there are the most popular item in the shop.
4. English Breakfast Tea is more aromatic than the Earl Grey Tea.
5. Those souvenirs are cuter than these.

C. Write the correct form of the comparative or superlative of the word in parentheses.

Example: Fried eggs are _____ than raw eggs. (delicious)

Fried eggs are more delicious than raw eggs.

1. The short light blue sofa is more comfortable than the short beige sofa. (comfortable)
2. Train tickets on the Shinkansen are more expensive than those on the local express. (expensive)
3. Monet's paintings are _____ than Manet's. (beautiful)
4. This blue and yellow suitcase is the largest in the store. (large)
5. The science books in this store are more interesting than the history books. (interesting)