INTERVIEW WITH MOJA!

Try to fill in the answers or ask Moja!

So, is Moja your full name?

No! I have two middle names, and "Moja" is taken from my first middle name. It's Mojalefa. Ask me if you want to know my full name...

Does your name have any meaning in your home language?

It means h _____. In English it's a royal word meaning the next king or queen.

Where are you from Moja?

Pretoria in South Africa. It's very famous for the "J _____" tree. They have beautiful purple flowers in spring.

How many languages can you speak?

About 5 (Zulu, Tswana, Xhosa, E _____, Afrikaans and a little Indonesian), but

I can also understand another 5.

Where is your favourite place at British Hills?

The S _____ room! I play five times a week with my friends at British Hills.

What's your favourite English word or phrase?

"How you doing?" It's friendly and easy to use with friends. In South Africa we say "h _____?", but not many people know that greeting in Japan, so ask one of our teachers from South Africa!

If you were a superhero, what would be your superpower?

To control smartphone networks... I hate it when people stare at their p _____ and don't talk. I would love to have the power to turn off the network whenever I like!

Christmas in Jamaica

Christmas in Jamaica used to be a time of great fun. We had a big festival called Jankunu. Jankunu is a mixture of African and European culture. People would dress up in costumes and play different characters. Pitchy Patchy is the most colourful and famous character. The characters would dance in the streets to drums and other instruments scaring little children. We no longer celebrate Jankunu, but I have performed Jankunu in the theatre. I sang and danced with my whole heart!

Krismos a kom is a Jankunu song that I used to sing when I was a child. It is written below in the Jamaican Creole Language with the English translation underneath. If you can find a melody, please sing along!
