

HLO: Tea and Culture post study

Activity 1

Answer the questions below.

Culture and etiquette

1) Why should you use fresh water?

2) Who should you pour tea for?

Person to your left

Person to your right

Yourself

3) Should you offer milk?

Yes

No

4) What's the best type of tea pot to use?

Steel

Silver

Cast iron

Glass

Ceramic

History

What's another name for afternoon tea?

When was afternoon tea invented?

When is afternoon tea usually eaten?

When is high tea usually eaten?

Who opened the first tea room? Where is it?

What drink was more popular before tea?

When and where were tea bags first invented?

Activity 2

To make tea, put the following steps in order:

- 1 Fill kettle with fresh, cold water.
- Add about 1/3 boiling water to the tea pot.
- Empty the tea pot.
- Put in the tea.
- Fill up tea pot with boiling water.
- Warm the tea pot.
- Allow tea to brew.

Activity 3

Listen to the descriptions of different teas. Write the correct number in the boxes.

English Breakfast

Masala Chai

English Afternoon

Lapsang Souchong

Sencha

Matcha

White tea

Oolong tea

Ceylon