

HL: Talk Show: Post-Study

Activity 1

Example answers (you may have used different language):

1. Actor: Which director would you most like to work with?
2. Politician: Who were your heroes when you were a child?
3. Baseball player: How many hours of training do you do each week?
4. Teacher: What was your favorite subject when you were a student?

Activity 2

Example answers (you may have used different language):

1. Q. Did you always want to be an actor?
A. No, but I liked reading and writing plays when I was a child.
Q. So, did you want to be a writer then?
2. Q. How would you describe yourself when you were younger?
A. I was always happy and I liked making people laugh.
Q. Did you think you would become a comedian?

British Hills

3. Q. Did you enjoy cooking when you were a child?
A. Yes, my father was a great cook and we would often cook together.
Q. So, did he encourage you to become a chef?
4. Q. When did you first meet your business partner?
A. We met on the first day of university.
Q. Did you know straight away that you would become great friends?
5. Q. Did you think your last novel would become so popular?
A. No, because nobody would publish it, so I thought it must be very bad.
Q. How did you feel when it became a best seller?
6. Q. How did you feel when the band split up?
A. I was sad when we stopped working together and I was nervous about working on a solo career.
Q. Do you think you might work together again in the future?
7. Q. Did your parents also work in the science industry?
A. No. They owned a small restaurant so I think they wanted me to join the family business.
Q. What did they say when you told them you wanted to be a scientist?