

Describing a Product - post-study

1. What is the purpose of headphones? (Choose the correct answer)

a. Headphones are usually used for recreational purposes, but also for business purposes. They play sound privately, without making noise for people nearby.

b. Headphones are usually used for public purposes, but also for business purposes. They make sound louder, so that many people can hear.

2. Can you think of a product that is used for...

...recreational purposes?

...business purposes?

...public purposes?

...domestic purposes?

3. What is being described?

a. These are usually for public purposes, but can also be used for private purposes. They are used to carry a large number of people at once, and can charge a fare. Many schools provide them without charge.

Airplanes / Buses / Taxis

b. This is used for public, business, domestic, and recreational purposes. It provides news, lets people communicate around the world, and streams music and video. It is also used to sell products, services, and information.

Radio / Television / The internet